

REMARKS

Claims 1 and 3-5 are pending in this application. By this Amendment, claim 1 is amended. No new matter is added by this amendment. Reconsideration of the application based upon the above amendment and the following remarks are respectfully requested.

An Amendment After Final Rejection (AAFR) was filed December 27, 2006 in response to the Office Action mailed September 27, 2006. The January 10, 2007 Advisory Action asserts that the AAFR was entered, and that the amendments to claim 1 fail to properly claim the subject matter of the "storage well" and "carriage tray."

Applicants appreciate the courtesies shown to Applicants' representative by Examiner Gordon during the January 26, 2007 telephone interview. Applicants' separate record of the substance of the interview is incorporated into the following remarks. Specifically, claim 1 is amended to comply with the Examiner's helpful suggestions made during the interview.

Entry of the amendment is proper under 37 CFR §1.116 since the amendment: (a) place the application in condition for allowance for the reasons discussed herein; (b) do not raise any new issue requiring further search and/or consideration since the amendments amplify issues previously discussed throughout prosecution; and (c) place the application in better form for appeal, should an appeal be necessary. The amendments are necessary and were not earlier presented because they are made in response to arguments raised in the Advisory Action. Entry of the amendments is thus respectfully requested.

The Advisory Action, in paragraph 11, asserts that the December 27, 2006 AAFR fails to positively recite the elements "storage well" and "carriage tray" in the subject matter of pending claim 1. Claim 1 is amended to obviate this assertion. Accordingly, reconsideration and allowance of the subject matter of claim 1, and the claims depending therefrom, are respectfully requested.

In view of the foregoing, it is respectfully submitted that this application is in condition for allowance. Favorable reconsideration and prompt allowance of claims 1 and 3-5 are earnestly solicited.

Should the Examiner believe that anything further would be desirable in order to place this application in even better condition for allowance, the Examiner is invited to contact the undersigned at the telephone number set forth below.

Respectfully submitted,
